

The Washington Trial

The Loomis Company Analysis of MedEncentive at Lourdes Health Network

Tom Forsberg, Vice President, The Loomis Company

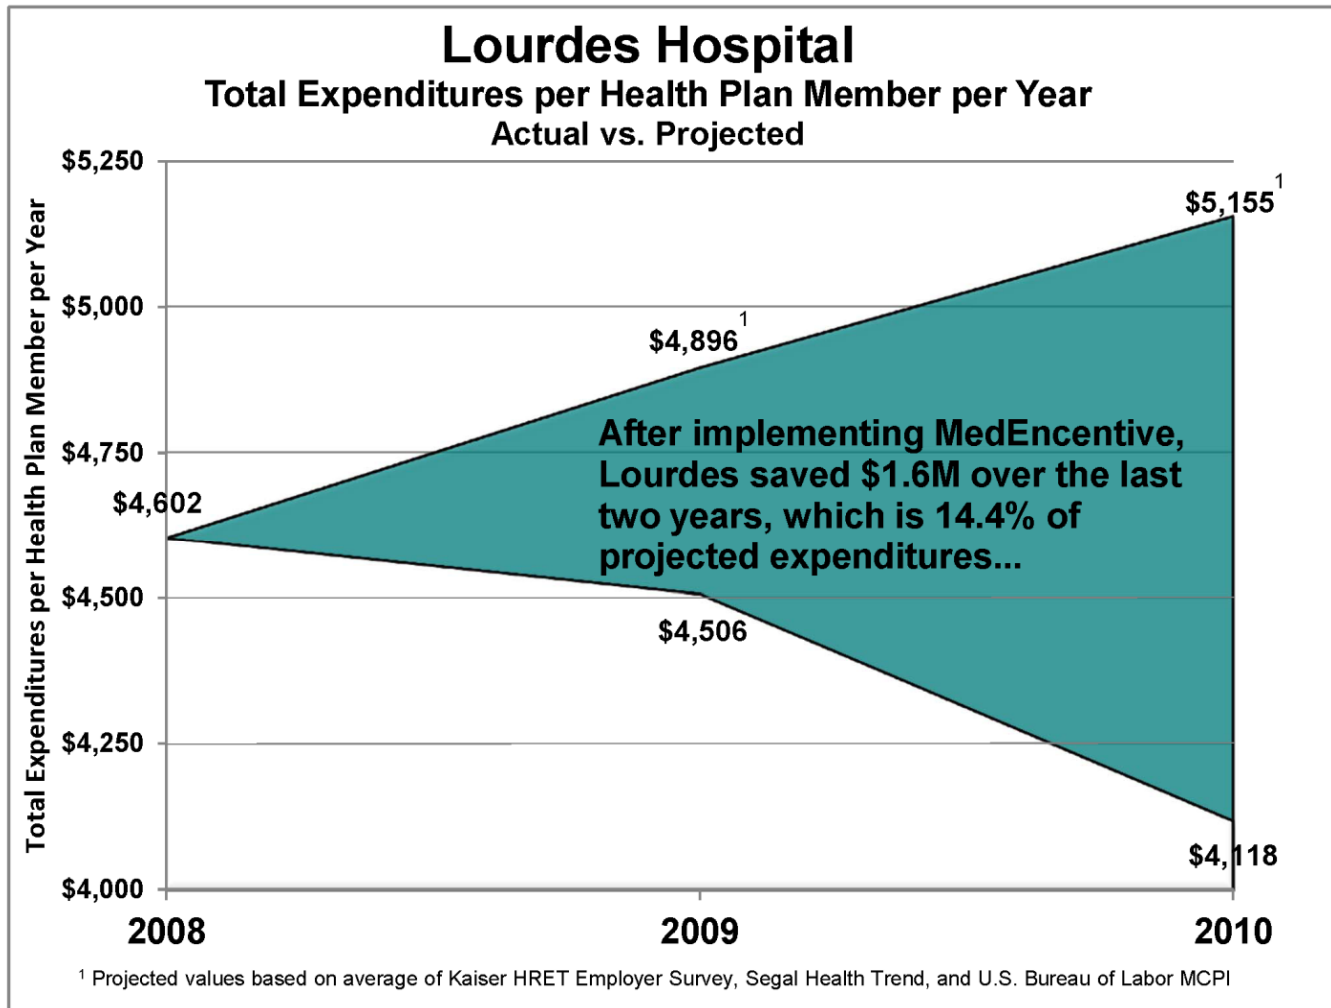

- Wyomissing, Pennsylvania-based award winning insurance services company
- Founded in 1955, family-owned and operated
- Offices located across the country
- Third party administrator for Lourdes Health Network

- Located in Pasco, Washington
- Founded in 1916
- Faith-based hospital system
- 1,100 health plan members
- Unionized workforce
- Escalating healthcare costs prior to adopting the MedEncentive Program in 2008
- An Ascension Health facility

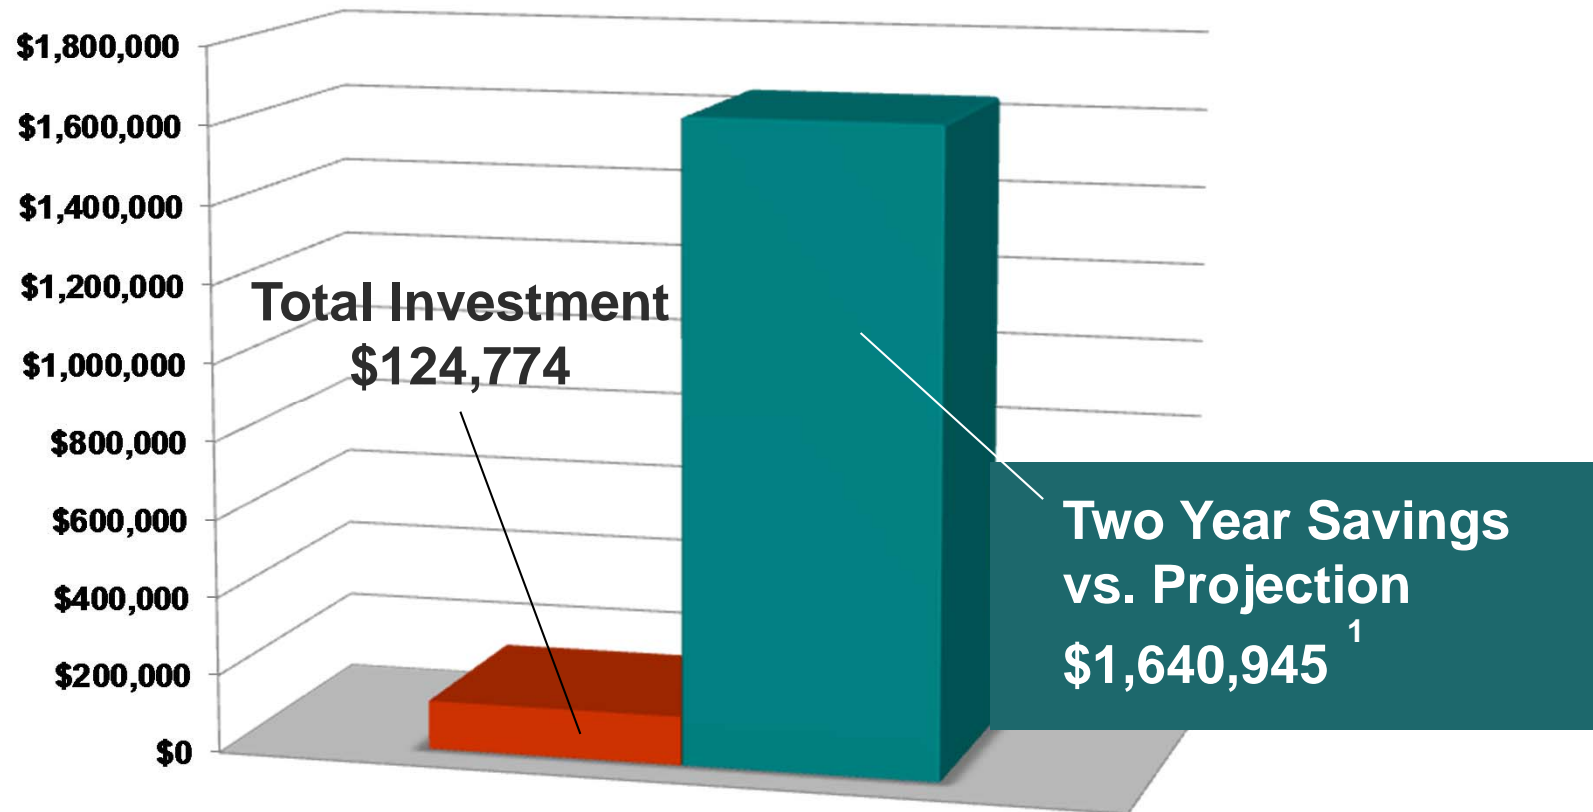

Projected healthcare cost per member per year increased while Lourdes' actual all-in PMPY costs decreased

Source: The Loomis Company

Lourdes Health Network

Return on Investment in the MedEncentive Program

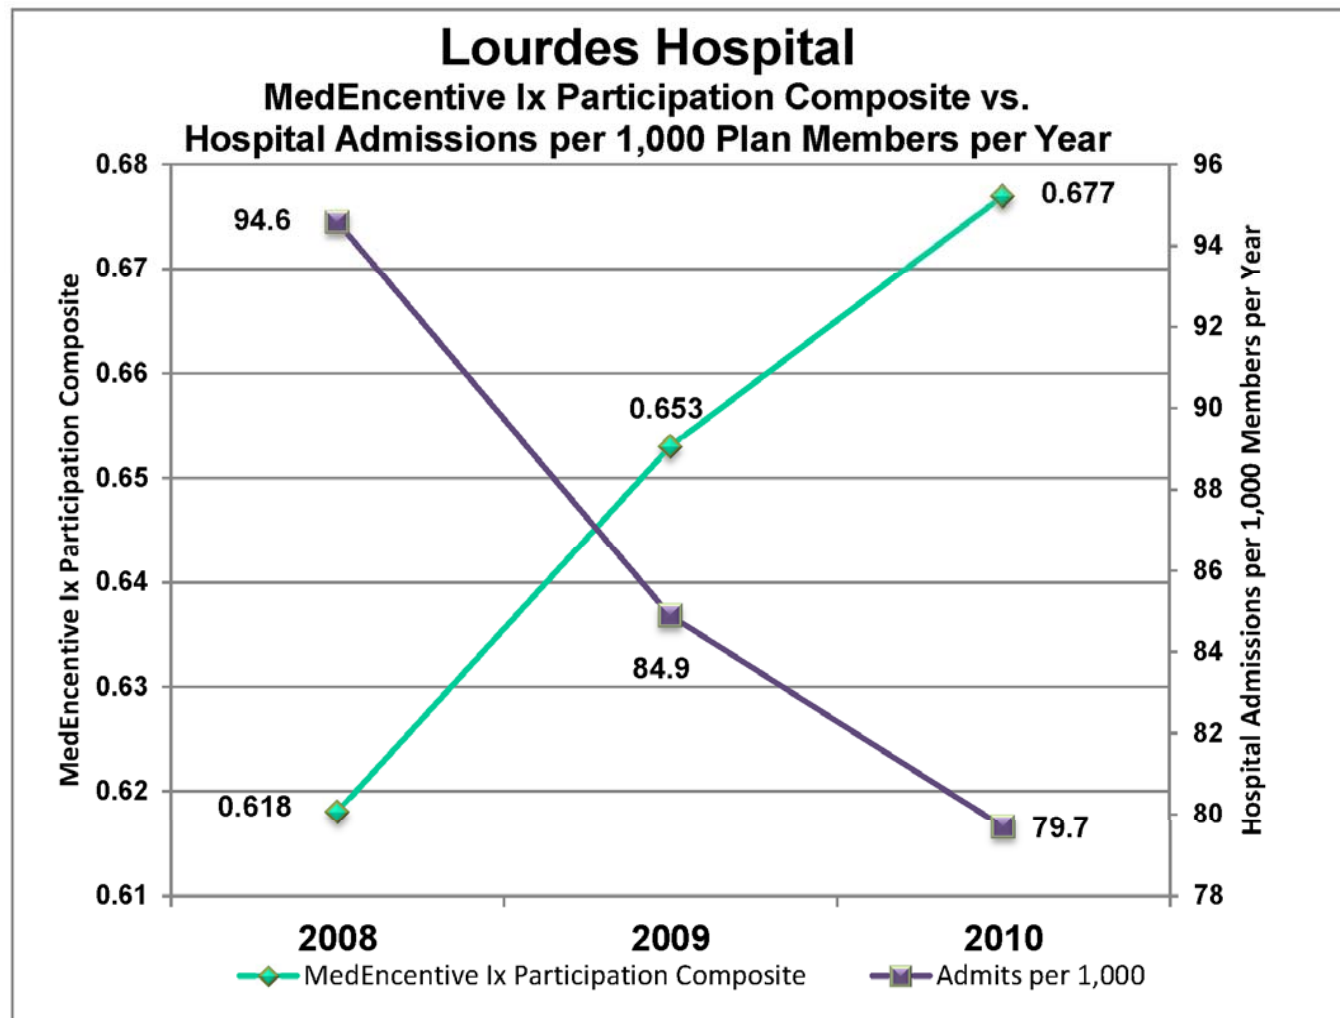

Two year savings vs. MedEncentive program investment = 13:1 ROI

Data Source: The Loomis Company

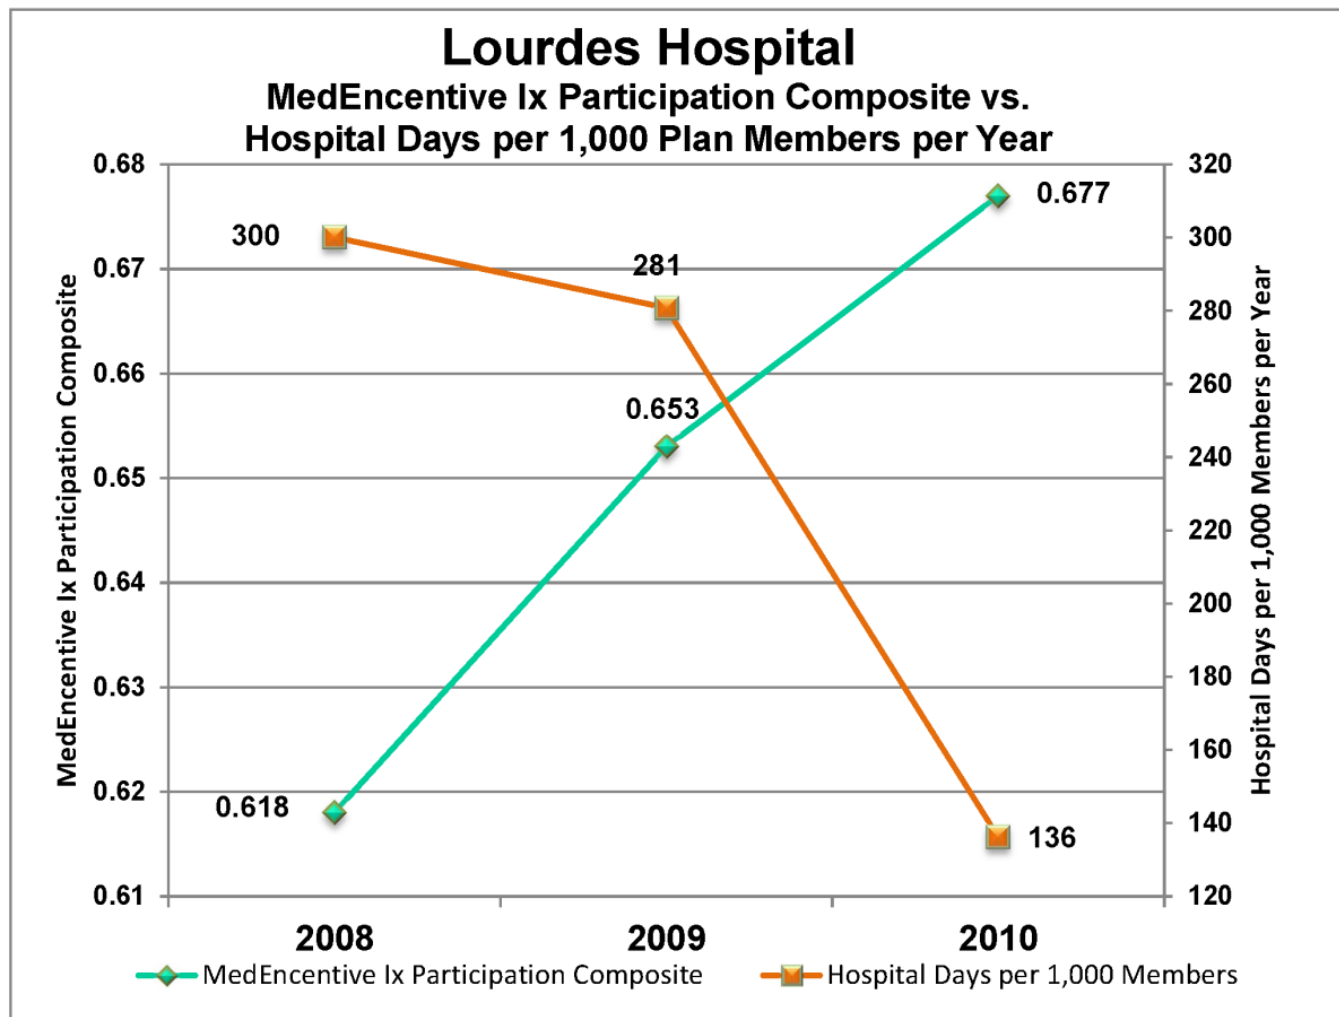

¹ Projected values based on average of Kaiser HRET Employer Survey, Segal Health Trend, and U.S. Bureau of Labor MCPI

Patient and physician participation in MedEncentive increased and hospitalizations decreased

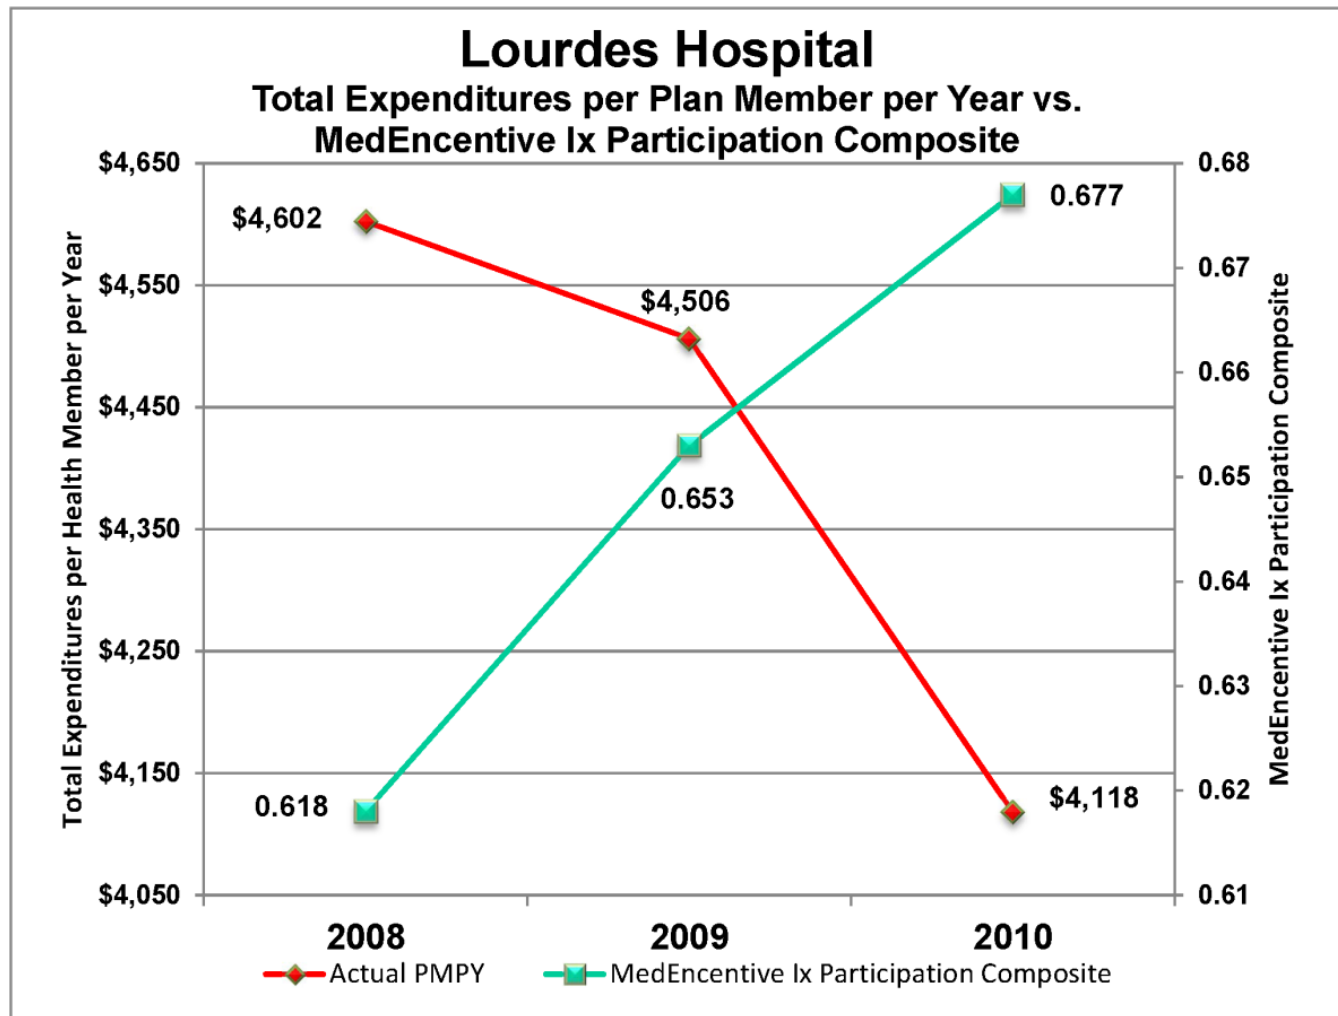

Source: The Loomis Company and MedEncentive, LLC

Patient and physician participation in MedEncentive increased and hospital days decreased

Source: The Loomis Company and MedEncentive, LLC

Patient and physician participation in MedEncentive increased and cost per member per year decreased

Source: The Loomis Company and MedEncentive, LLC